

FECCA supports SBS with submission to inquiry

The Federation of Ethnic Communities' Councils of Australia (FECCA) has made a submission to the Federal Government's inquiry into the 'competitive neutrality' of Australia's public broadcasters, urging that SBS be retained in its current form.

The Chairperson of FECCA, Mary Patetsos said that SBS television, radio and online broadcasting continue to embody a modern Multicultural Australia.

"These SBS services reflect a diverse and enriched Australia and FECCA believes that our political leaders should ensure the continuation of SBS," Ms Patetsos said.

"We urge organisations and individuals who are committed to the future of a vibrant and vigorous SBS to make a submission to the inquiry," Ms Patetsos.

FECCA is the national peak body representing Australians from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds. Our role is to advocate and promote issues on behalf of our constituency to government, business and the broader community.
