

Policy and Project Officer

The Federation of Ethnic Communities' Councils of Australia (FECCA) seeks to employ a Policy and Project Officer commencing as soon as possible. This is a full time position until June 2018, with the possibility of extension.

FECCA is the national peak body representing and advocating for Australia's culturally and linguistically diverse communities. FECCA is a non-government, not-for-profit organisation that promotes multiculturalism, community harmony, human rights and social justice in the interests of all Australians.

FECCA is looking for an exceptional person with motivation, experience and commitment to cultural diversity and its associated values, and strong expertise in general multicultural policy. Experience in Mental Health, Gender Equality and Youth Issues will be an added advantage.

The position will offer the successful applicant excellent opportunities to use a wide range of skills and to demonstrate their energy, creativity, communication, interpersonal and policy capacities. The position is based in the Canberra.

The salary range is $61,000 - $65,000.

Applications addressing the selection criteria, your CV and contact details for two professional referees should be e-mailed to admin@fecca.org.au using the subject line: Policy and Project Officer Application.

Applications are due by Friday 1st December 2017.

Further information about the positions can be obtained by calling Beverley Roberts on 02 6282 5755.
