

Dementia Care Experiences in Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Communities: Project Summary

Author/s: Alzheimer's Australia | Year: 2013 | Publication type: Project brief (new research project) | Peer reviewed: | Topic area/s: Dementia

Reference: Alzheimer's Australia (2013). Dementia Care Experiences in Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Communities: Project Summary.

Key Words:

dementia, social inclusion, health literacy

Research aim:

The aim of the project is to establish what dementia care services can do to improve dementia awareness and reduce risks associated with dementia care in culturally and linguistically diverse (CaLD) communities in the Brisbane area.

Results/Conclusion:

Implications:

Cultural Group(s):

Location of study:

Brisbane

Age group:

Number included in study:

N/A

Type of participants:

Research approach:

Type of data:

Secondary data sources used:

Specific scales or analytical techniques used:

Implications/ Recommendations:

Notes: