

Diversity in Aged Care: Creating a culturally competent and engaged workforce

Author/s: Brightwater Care Group | Year: 2013 | Publication type: Newsletter Article | Peer reviewed: No | Topic area/s: General Care, Culturally Appropriate Care

Reference: Brightwater Care Group (2013) "Diversity in Aged Care: Creating a culturally competent and engaged workforce" Article in The Standard

Key Words:

CALD, culturally competent workforce

Research aim:

This newsletter article from the Aged Care Standards and Accreditation Agency reports on a research project carried out with carers in WA, other documents and information about this project are now available via the Brightwater Care Group

Results/Conclusion:

A resource kit for community service organisations has been developed

Implications:

Cultural Group(s):

CALD

Location of study:

Age group:

N/A

Number included in study:

N/A

Type of participants:

N/A

Research approach:

Type of data:

Secondary data sources used:

Specific scales or analytical techniques used:

Implications/ Recommendations:

Notes: