

Emerging Needs Scoping Study: South East Asian Report

Author/s: Johansson, Kristin Kyriazopoulos, Helena Barnett, Kate Cocking, Miriam | Year: 2011 | Publication type: Report | Peer reviewed: | Topic area/s: General Wellbeing, Community Profile

Reference:

Key Words:

community profile, services, South East Asian, future needs

Research aim:

This project aims to: • assist OFTA gain a comprehensive understanding of the current and future community-based aged care needs of the main emerging CALD communities in South Australia • develop OFTA's knowledge base so that it will be sufficient to inform the development of culturally appropriate service models and equitable allocation of HACC funding to these communities • provide communities new to South Australia with information on Home and Community Care (HACC) services.

Results/Conclusion:

The report provides a series of recommendations in meeting the needs of older people from South East Asian backgrounds

Implications:

Cultural Group(s):

South East Asian

Location of study:

South Australia

Age group:

50+ (older people), carers and stakeholders any age

Number included in study:

549 community member questionnaire respondents, 73 organisation consultations, 503 people attended community meetings

Type of participants:

stakeholders and community members, including carers of CALD aged

Research approach:

Mixed methods

Type of data:

Primary and secondary

Secondary data sources used:

Specific scales or analytical techniques used:

Implications/ Recommendations:

Notes:

Community profile of the South East Asian community in South Australia based with demographic data and information from community surveys and consultations with stakeholders and community members. Links to resources for the community and a set of recommendations for meeting future needs. One in a series of five ENSS reports that describe different key community groups.