

Overseas workers for the aged care sector. Scoping paper

Author/s: Aged & Community Services Australia | Year: 2008 (updated 2011) | Publication type: Report | Peer reviewed: | Topic area/s: General Care

Reference: Aged & Community Services Australia (2008). Overseas workers for the aged care sector. Scoping paper. Melbourne, Aged & Community Services Australia.

Key Words:

aged care workforce, scoping paper, service provision, migrant workers

Research aim:

The ACSA Federation recognises a workforce shortage is also one of the main issues confronting the aged and community care sector. One of the areas it has identified for consideration is overseas workers.

Results/Conclusion:

Discussion report about the increasing demand for aged care workers and the possibility of using overseas workers to fill the gaps. literature review of the process, procedures and pros and cons of hiring overseas workers.

Implications:

Cultural Group(s):

Location of study:

Age group:

Number included in study:

N/A

Type of participants:

Research approach:

Type of data:

Secondary data sources used:

Specific scales or analytical techniques used:

Implications/ Recommendations:

Notes:

Not primary research. Scoping paper about using migrant workers to fill the gap in aged care services workforce