

Reclaiming Respect and Dignity: Elder Abuse Prevention in Ethnic Communities

Author/s: Ethnic Communities Councils of Victoria | Year: 2009 | Publication type: Report | Peer reviewed: | Topic area/s: General Wellbeing

Reference: Ethnic Communities Councils of Victoria (2009). Reclaiming Respect and Dignity: Elder Abuse Prevention in Ethnic Communities. Policy Discussion Paper

Key Words:
elder abuse, CALD

Research aim:

The goal of this paper is to help progress much needed open discussion on elder abuse prevention within the ethnic community service organisations, families and carers.

Results/Conclusion:

highlighted the strengths of ethnic and multicultural organisations in building trust with culturally diverse families and communities; the challenges faced by ethnic seniors due to lack of awareness of what abuse is; and valuable opportunities for the ethnic infrastructure to provide culturally competent expertise in elder abuse prevention.

Implications:

Cultural Group(s):
CALD

Location of study:
Victoria

Age group:

Number included in study:
N/A

Type of participants:

Research approach:

Type of data:

Secondary data sources used:

Specific scales or analytical techniques used:

Implications/ Recommendations:

Notes:

Not primary research - discussion paper about elder abuse issues in CALD communities