

FECCA applauds Attorney-General's stand against intolerance

FECCA today applauded the strong stand taken by the Leader of the Government in the Senate and Attorney-General, Senator The Honourable George Brandis QC in response to the offensive actions by Senator Pauline Hanson in the Senate yesterday.

FECCA's Acting Chairperson, Ms Eugenia Grammatikakis said: "Senator Brandis has shown leadership and strength in his strong repudiation of the anti-Muslim and racist behaviour of the One Nation Leader".

Ms Grammatikakis continued: "We also applaud all those Senators who gave Senator Brandis a standing ovation following his eloquent defence of Australia's multicultural society and traditions."

FECCA is the national peak body representing Australians from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. FECCA's role is to advocate and promote issues on behalf of its constituency to government, business and the broader community.
