

FECCA calls on Morrison Government to rule out SBS-ABC merger

The Federation of Ethnic Communities' Councils of Australia (FECCA) today called on the Federal Government to rule out a merger of SBS and ABC.

The Chairperson of FECCA, Ms Mary Patetsos said that FECCA was strongly supportive of SBS as a separate broadcaster.

“The essence of our diverse Multicultural Australia can be enjoyed every day on SBS television, radio and online broadcasting,” Ms Patetsos said.

“Our political leaders should ensure the continuation of SBS as a public broadcaster in its own right.

“SBS reflects the diversity and enrichment of Australia from decades of immigration.

“We call on all Australians who are committed to the future of a vibrant and vigorous SBS to join us in our support of the broadcaster.”

FECCA is the national peak body representing Australians from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds. Our role is to advocate and promote issues on behalf of our constituency to government, business and the broader community.
