

FECCA celebrates 'yes' vote: a win for equality and non-discrimination

The Federation of Ethnic Communities' Councils of Australia welcomed the strong support shown for marriage equality in the same-sex marriage survey results announced today.

Ms Mary Patetsos, Chairperson of FECCA said: "FECCA called on all Australians, of all backgrounds, to choose 'yes' in the marriage equality survey. We are delighted with this outcome."

Ms Patetsos said: "Our support for marriage equality is in line with FECCA's continuing advocacy for equality and non-discrimination across Australia's diverse society."

"We welcome the leadership shown by the many community leaders from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds who strongly supported the 'yes' vote in the same-sex marriage survey," she said.

Ms Patetsos continued: "We look forward to all Australians coming together to support non-discrimination and equality for everyone in our multicultural and diverse nation."

FECCA is the national peak body representing Australians from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. FECCA's role is to advocate and promote issues on behalf of its constituency to government, business and the broader community.

Media contact: (0424) 910617 / emma@fecca.org.au