

FECCA pays tribute to Les Murray

The Federation of Ethnic Communities' Councils of Australia (FECCA) pays tribute to Les Murray, the renowned SBS broadcaster, and football journalist, who passed away yesterday.

Les Murray, played a major role in the development of football in Australia and helped the 'world game' become one of the nation's mainstream sports.

Les arrived in Australia as a young refugee from Hungary and committed himself to advocating for the rights of other migrants and refugees. He was courageous, passionate and outspoken in his call for protection and justice for refugees.

Known as "Mr Football", Les Murray will be remembered as a great man who was an inspiration to Australians of all cultural and sporting backgrounds.

FECCA is the national peak body representing Australians from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. FECCA's role is to advocate and promote issues on behalf of its constituency to government, business and the broader community.

Media contact: (0424) 910617 / emma@fecca.org.au